Truman Vetoes Will Bring Big Clash Goods, Labor Supply Boost Increase Farm Debts Ginger Fails As Peacemaker In 1947

Special to Central Press WASHINGTON, May 1,-President Truman is generally expected to clash with Republican majorities in Congress by vetoing three major bills now in process of preparation.

These bills would annul portal-to-portal pay suits ,institute sweeping labor reforms and cut taxes. Deep rumblings of a veto against the portal pay suit bill have already echoed through Capitol corridors. Considerable delay has been encountered, however, in getting final action on the bill because of the difficulties confronting the Senate-House conference committee. If this bill finally reaches the White House and is vetoed, it will be the first major clash between the chief executive and the GOP-controlled

If Congress should pass a comparatively mild labor bill, there is a chance that the president might approve it. The legislation now being routed through the two chambers, however, is loaded with drastic strike and union curbs. A presidential veto is generally predicted if a bill of this kind is finally passed. The tax reduction bill is almost certain to head into a veto unless the measure finally passed is far different from the "20-30" per cent income tax cut measure approved by the House. As to whether Congress would pass any of these bills over a vetothere is a possibility, in the case of the labor legislation, that this might be done. On portal pay suits the result of a veto is doubtful, while in the case of the tax bill a veto is almost certain to be sustained.

AMERICAN FARMERS ARE EXPECTED to go deeper into debt in 1947 than they have at any time during the past few years. The Agriculture department anticipates a net increase in farmers' grandchildren, 235 great-grandchil- debts this year and warns that short-term credit will be used exten-

The department attributes its predictions to two separate factors. First, it points to the increased supply of labor and goods; secondly, to prospects of continued good farm income

Favorable farming conditions last year, together with good prospects for 1947, are encouraging further expansion of farm production this The return of veterans and war workers to the farm is making more farm labor available and this trend may lead to more acres of crops and an increase in the number of livestock. This general expansion will in many cases involve the purchase of farm machinery, enlargement of farm buildings and the use of more feed, fertilizer and supplies. Farm people also want and need automobiles, refrigerators, washing machines, radios and many other durable goods which are only now re-appearing in quantity on the market. All these conditions are expected to influence farmers to borrow more money this year in the expectation of paying it back in the future.

A YEAR AGO, when a telephone strike threatened the nation, negotiations had proceeded to the point where tempers were sharp. Charges and countercharges were being tossed about the conference room where the disputants wrangled. It seemed that the meeting would blow up

At that moment, Secretary of Labor Lewis Schwellenbach called his small acrobatic dog, Ginger into the room. He put Ginger through her paces. The onlookers relaxed. The tension was relieved. Within a matter of hours an agreement was reached and there was no strike.

Perhaps Ginger had little to do with it but observers gave her credit if only as a lucky omen. This year Schwellenbach tried it again as the phone strike loomed. He called her in, put her through her paces but the disputants went right back at it. Ginger had missed.

Surrender Of Truk Related

David Gattrall, Y. M. C. A. Secretary, Tells Fellow Kiwanians Of Momentuous Event

CLUB TAKES VOTE ON CHANGING TIME

Although much was written at the time about the surrender of the Japanese aboard the USS Missouri in Tokyo, ending the war with Japan, little was seen in the public print about the surrender of the Jap stronghold at Truk.

Dave Gattrall, director of boys work at the Y. M. C. A., who was there, aboard the cruiser Portland, told fellow Kiwanis club members about this important event at their noon luncheon meeting in The Castleton, Wednesday. He also showed pictures of the surrender.

At the time it happened, Mr. Gattrall stated, it just seemed to be another event in the life of a nawy man, but now that he looks back upon it, it begins to loom up with historical interest.

The Portland, to which ship he was assigned after being accepted for navy duty, was one of the real fighting ships in the war against Japan, having participated in 15 engagements, escaping virtually unscathed due to the expert maneuvering of its skipper.

After finishing up at Okinawa, the ship was ordered to proceed to Guam, and the members of the crew believed this was just a step in the homeward journey, until they were ordered to put the ship in shape, repainting it and refurbishing it until it shone. Their white uniforms were also carefully laundered. Such procedure afterwards seemed like a bit of useless labor, because when the Japanese general and admiral came aboard at Truk to surrender, they made the journey from shore in a small, dingy looking motor launch, and their uniforms were of poor suality and in need of pressing.

Surrender was made to Vice Admiral Murray, commander of the Marianas, in which area Truk Truk, Mr. Gattrall stated, was to the Japs what Pearl Harbor had been to America, and it was never made the subject of attack because of its impregnability. It was simply by-passed during the war.

After the surrender, the Portland sailed on its way, and eventually landed in New York harbor, where the men were discharged.

Members of the club took a vote on daylight savings time, their decision, which was unanimous, being ordered conveyed to the Greater New Castle Association and to Mayor Haven.

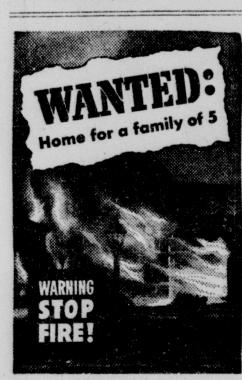

Pennsylvania Is Among Leaders In Dairy Products

Washington Correspondent of The News)
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 1.—
Gross farm income from dairy products last year was greater in Pennsylvania than all states save New York, Wisconsin, Minnesota and California, the department of agriculture reports.

Such income to Keystone State farmers mounted from $199,953,000 in 1945 to $239,145,000 in 1946 in 1945 to $239,145,000 in 1946.

Gross income from sale of milk to plants and wholesale dealers last year totaled $173,693,0000 in Pennsylvania. Other income figures by source were listed by the agriculture department as: farm butter, $3,036,000; cream sold to plants, $2,202,000; milk and cream retailed by farmers, $37,950,000, and value of products consumed on farms, $22,264,000.

Threat Of Merger

The total number of companies is not the important point. The important point is that 5 per cent, which is not to be derided as the bogey of left-wingers and collectivists is a sizable chunk of our economy. The threat of merger andabsorption is a very real one to thousands of smaller businesses throughout the country.

Name-calling is so silly and futile. It is always the last resort of a man with a bad case or a bad conscience. Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney of Wyoming is no left-winger. He has been fighting for the past ten years to keep the free-enterprise system free by keeping it competitive. He has had the courage to say that the giant corporations are in reality collectivism-a kind of private socialism. And being wise in the ways of politics and human behavior, he knows that private socialism will sooner or later in a democracy become public socialism.

Would Stop Loophole fauver of Tennessee have a bill before congress which would stop one of the loopholes in our anti-trust laws. The law, as it stands today, ng about acquiring the physical ssets-plants and machines-of another corporation.

Most of the mergers in recent years have been by the latter method. The O'Mahoney-Kefauver bill

If congress is going to attack the labor monopoly by law, as the NAM wants, then congress cannot very well ignore the monopoly that exists in many fields of business. There seems to me to be little point in arguing which monopoly came first. Industry-wide bargaining may have grown up because of the existence of industry-wide trade associations and industry-wide price-fixing. But like the argument over which came first, the chicken or the egg, this is irrelevant.

"Now is the time," said NAM President Bunting, "to clean out the system-changers from the temple of government." As Sen. O'Mahoney sees it, the system-changers are those who would monopolize all business and thereby prepare the way for the all-dominant state. Copyright, 1947, By United Feature

At Ohio State

COLUMBUS, O., May 1.—(INS) -Freshmen entering Ohio State University this fall will find their arts courses fairly well mapped out for them for the first two years. The University announced that major changes in the curriculum, adopted after a three-year study, leave almost no elective courses to the entering freshmen. The number of fixed requirements have been greatly increased in the program of study for a bachelor of arts degree. The first two years only are affected by the new program. In making known the results of the study. Dr. Harlan Hatcher, dean of the Ohio State College of Arts and sciences, said:

"Although the new curriculum parallels in many respects the programs that are going into effect at Harvard, Yale, Princecon, Columbia and elsewhere, it has been devised individually to meet the needs of students at a large state university" Some junior-senior changes were made, but they were not considered major. Bachelor of Science courses. were not affected.

THE EGG and I

The man I love is a funny egg. His feet too big for de bed. But I can't help telling my guy named

"Honey, you go to my head".

He's got no imagination, No personality. But on the other end of a kiss . . . "Baby what you do to me".

My Joe's got triskaidekaphobia On top of that, flat feet. But when my man comes home to me, I'm on the sunny side of the street.

He's just my ragtime cowboy Joe, He wears a ten gallon hat: He may be a Mr. five-by-five, But I like 'em fat like that.

He's definitely no Perry Como He's strictly without a song. But he'll be my one and only, Until the real thing comes along.

Joe don't know the language of love, He calls me K-K-K-Katy, But when he smiles I'm lost in the stars Because I'm a sentimental lady.

He'll always be my lover man, I'm sure I don't know why; But I know that 'til the end of time I'm gonna love that guy.

Unless you've had that old feeling, I'm sure you'll never know, Why, for me, as long as I live, Happiness is a thing called Joe.

Such Is Censensus Of Opinion Of Safety Leaders At Pittsburgh Convention

PITTSBURGH, May 1-(INS)-It's an old story, but it needs constant retelling, according to safety officials attending the Western Pennsylvania Safety Council Conference in Pittsburgh.

"Home, sweet home" is still the most dangerous place! That was the consensus of opinion among safety leaders at the opening day of the conference in Pittsburgh. Dr. William D. McClelland, Allegheny county coroner, told a discussion group on home and school safety that while accidents have decreased considerably in industry and public transportation, the decrease in home accidents has been slight.

He said that home fatalities dropped only 5 per cent in the atin during 1946. At the same time, he added, industrial fatalities dropped 331/2 per cent; railroads 40 per cent, and bus and street cars 50 per cent. One of the chief dangers in the home is gas leakage, Dr. McClelland Navy Recruiting asserted. He listed other dangers

Marion Wong, a cafe employe, was in critical condition at Georgia Street Receiving hospital with bullet wounds in the abdomen and Later residents nearby saw him climbing over their back fences and he shot at them, Another man heard the shots and came outside. He, too, drew fire from the gunman. One of the shots hit a pet

FUR STORAGE

INGREDIENTS 61/2 cups OCCIDENT Family Flour

2 cups lukewarm (87° F.) water 1/2 cup sugar 2 cakes compressed yeast 1 tablespoon salt 2 eggs

METHOD

Place lukewarm water, sugar and yeast in mixing bowl. Add salt and 2 cups sifted flour. Beat with electric mixer or rotary egg beater for 2 minutes. Add eggs and cooled melted shortening, beat 1 minute. Gradually add 41/2 cups flour, stirring until a dough is formed. Allow dough to "rest" in bowl for 20 minutes for ease in handling. Dough is now ready to shape into rolls.

EASY TO SHAPE

1. Roll 1/2 of Speedie Dough into a 9 x 15 inch rectangle on a floured bread board. (Balance of dough may be used for a second tea ring or for any other desired roll variations.) Blend 1/2 cup brown sugar, 1 teaspoon cinnamon and 1/4 cup melted shortening; spread on dough.

2. Roll jelly-roll fashion and place on greased baking sheet with sealed edge down. Shape into a ring and seal ends together.

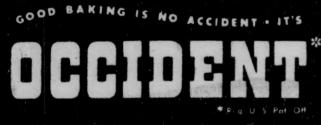

3. With scissors cut through ring to 1/2 inch of inner edge-in 1-inch slices. Twist each slice on its side. Cover and let rise in a warm place (about 85° F.) for 40 minutes. Bake 30-35 minutes in a moderately hot oven (375°).

4. Prepare icing by blending 1/2 cup powdered sugar, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, 1 tablespoon milk. Spread on warm Tea Ring. Nuts and maraschino cherries may be placed on icing.

One reason is the strict discipline imposed by Republican leaders on the 168-member GOP delegation. Defeat of many Democratic assemblymen who were attorneys in Philadelphia also ended the dash for trains which occurred on the day preceding the last day of the legislative week. In the past, when the Democratic bloc was much larger, the house would have been unable to poll a quorum. Many bills were passed and always the tally sheets showed a constitutional majority had been present although in reality some of the members were hundreds of miles away when their names were called.

Old City Ordinances Attorney To Speak Reveal 1907 Conditions

dinance book in the office of the city clerk, in city hall, one makes the discovery that on March 29, 1907, there was passed by common and select councils, a measure to provide feed, for horses which drew fire equipment and the police patrol. In fact, there was appropriated that year for fire department horses the sum of $2,036 while the horses in the police department drew feed worth only $250. Of course, there were more fire horses than police horses.

Salaries In 1907

The ordinance also appropriated sums for wages, insignificant with the sums paid today. For instance here's the 1907 salary list:

Mayor $1,000 (it is now $4,000), treasurer $500 (it is now about $4,000), controller $1,000 (it is now $3,600), while the city engineer in those days drew $2,000, health officer $900, street commissioner $1,200, city stenographer $600, city electrician $1,000, and sewer inspector $1,000.

Back in the 1907 days the council appropriated for memorial services $125, and other sums, as follows: repairs to city building, $2,100; department of law, $3.500; streets department, $31,000; fire bureau, $21,301: police department, $21,780; sewer department, $17,000; assessor, $2,000; public health, $10,000; surveys and engineering, $5,500, and electric department, $26,648.

The director of the poor for the city was paid $800, warden of the poor, $720, and physician for the poor, $660. These have since been shelved as city occupations, the upkeep for such being paid through county taxes. Fifteen hundred dollars was appropriated for the upkeep of the city home, and $2,200 for the maintenance of patients in th former Shnango Valley hospital, and for outside relief, $18,060. William W. Eichbaum was president of common council and J. C. McCready was president of select

Other Old Measures

One of the ordinances enacted in 1907 called for the maintenance of flagmen at all railroad crossings at Frozen streets and highways where there were no gates and where there were Peas no gates, trains were not allowed to cross unless a flagman was first stationed to protect the public.

Another ancient ordinance enacted occurred January 20, 1854, Banquet Cottage which incorporated the town of New Castle in the County of Mercer into a borough. David B. Kurtz Robin Hood was secretary of the town council. New Castle borough as follows:

The act gives the qualification for election, one being required to In Syrup-Lge. Cans Pineapple hold residence six months prior thereto. Rep. Wolcott (R) Mich, house nounced for the 73rd commencebanking and currency committee ment activities at Thiel College next chairman, strongly opposed any at- month, according to Dr. W. F. Zimtempt to terminate rent controls at their present expiration date of June

Wolcott defended the provision of his bill to extend rent controls, which would authorize the president to determine whether the program should be continued for an additional three months after the end of the year.

He pointed out that congress would not be in session in December and authority should be given the chief executive to determine the situation at that time. He warned that it may be a cold winter and the ending of controls in December could result in an epidemic of evictions at the worst possible time. Wolcott said that when congress resumes in January, it can if necessary extend controls even beyond the date of March 31 established in the bill. He declared: Will Build And Build

"With our help, I'm sure the building industry will build and Rep. O'Toole (D) N. Y., earlier termed the measure "a bill to legalize weakening of rent controls" O'Toole singled out the provision allowing a voluntary 15 per cent increase in rents on long-term leases for his criticism. He contended produced in Mexico. that tenants would be subject to O'Toole also asked that rent controls be extended until June 30, 1948, as requested by President Truman. A minority report from a Republican member of the house banking and currency committee was submitted as debate opened.

Rep. Smith of Ohio demanded the abolition of controls on the scheduled expiration date; June 30 of Smith, in his report, argued there was "no ground" for the claim that anything like a substantial shortage of housing would exist were rent controls removed.

Aggregate Incomes Of State Farm Organizations Shows Sharp Rise In Span

OTHER FARM NEWS FROM HARRISBURG

HARRISBURG, May 1.—(INS) -A survey by the joint state government commission revealed aggregate incomes of farmer cooperatives in Pennsylvania tripled between 1935 and 1945.

Aluminum Boat Angler's 'Dream'

PITTSBURGH, May 1.—(INS)

A Pittsburgh manufacturer has produced the answer to the fisherman's dream-an aluminum outboard motor boat that is sink-proof, eak-proof and warp-proof.

Weighing only 120 pounds, the 12foot boats are so light that they can actually be tossed into the water by two persons.

Designed by 50-year-old David Hoppenstand, president of the Hoppenstand Industries company, the boats are now being produced in a downtown Pittsburgh factory. The stern is made of one piece, with no seams or rivets on the bottom. The use of extruded aluminum alloy sheets locked into one tight unit produces a hull of exceptional rigidity.

It Takes More Than Looks To Make A Quality Truck

Sometimes appearances in a truck can be enhanced by the addition of a little material at the right place. The truck looks good, but what's underneath?

Good looks alone won't pull that long hill, or get through rugged roads. It takes built-in quality that you know will be there when you need it. Such quality is built into American Bantam Super-Cargo or Kingham' Trucks. They're good looking too, but its the roadability you'll like.
